

21st Annual Northeastern Rehabilitation Symposium
UPDATES for CLINICAL and LEGAL PRACTICE
Mohegan Sun Conference Center, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702
Monday, October 16, 2017

Course Objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Describe evaluation, diagnosis and treatment of cervical spine and shoulder pain.
2. Identify the benefits and limitations of EMGs and the various ways this diagnostic test can be interpreted.
3. Describe the evaluation and management of concussions using a case study.
4. Discuss the use of interventional pain management including injections, spinal cord stimulators and PRP.
5. Analyze various medical, legal, and ethical concepts related case management.

Conference Schedule:

8:00	Registration/Exhibits and Continental Breakfast (Provided)
8:25	Welcome and Introductions / Moderator	Kenneth Gentilezza, M.D.
8:30	Pain in the Neck—Clinical Evaluation and Treatment	John Kline, M.D.
9:15	Shoulder Pain: A Real Pain in the Neck	Michael Wolk, M.D.
10:00	Exhibits / Refreshment Break
10:30	Electrodiagnostic Testing: Interpretation, Pitfalls, and Pearls	Lucian Bednarz, M.D.
11:15	Understanding Injections—Which One is the Best Option?	Sheryl Oleski, D.O.
11:45	Ultrasound Guided UE Injections	Kelly Williams, D.O.
12:15	Lunch (Provided) / Exhibits
1:10	Afternoon Moderator	Michael Wolk, M.D.
1:15	Concussions—Case Study	Paul Horchos, D.O.
2:00	Spinal Cord Stimulators	Christopher Connor, D.O.
2:45	PRP and Stem Cell Treatment Options	Scott Naftulin, D.O.
3:30	Case Management Best practice: Being Ethical & Effective*	Holly Thompson, RN, BSN, CCM Ann Marie Loiseau, DNP, RN, CCM, CSN
4:30	Program Concludes	Andrew Greenburg, Esquire

* Additional Certification Provided for CCMC Ethics Credit Requirement [5.5 + 1.0 (ethics) = 6.5 CCMC credits]

This continuing nursing education activity will be submitted to the AAOHN, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. In addition to 6.5 CNEs, this activity has been submitted to CCMC, CCRC, CDMS, & CLE for 6.5 credits (includes 1.0 CCMC toward ethics credit requirement).